CITY OF GREENSBORO 2006 FREE CALENDARS AVAILABLE

GREENSBORO, NC (October 4, 2005) - The City of Greensboro now has 2006 calendars available to the public at no cost. These full-color 12 by 14-inch calendars feature beautiful photography of various locations in Greensboro, including local parks and gardens, downtown attractions, cultural events, and the Greensboro Coliseum Complex. Monthly topics include City priorities such as public safety, the environment, neighborhoods, economic development history, diversity, and sporting and cultural opportunities.

Calendars are available for pick-up at the Melvin Municipal Office Building, 300 West Washington Street, Plaza Level, Room 121, or by calling 373-CITY (2489).
